

NEWSLETTER No. 221 COLOUR SUPPLEMENT WINDRUSH SQUARE COMMUNITY DAY

2 April 2016

The Friends of Windrush Square (FoWS) &
The Friends of Tate Library Brixton (FoTLB)

Info and advice; sunshine, fun... and free ice-cream as a bonus! After a host of meetings called by concerned residents, and several press articles the people of Brixton enjoyed their Square, activities by local groups, and took time to find out more about local projects and facilities incl. Vida Walsh Centre, Age UK & Lambeth Healthwatch

The organisers, FoWS and FoTLB are Sub-Committees of the Brixton Society.

Windrush Square Community Day: in the foreground the Consultation Stall, through to the Friends of Windmill Gardens stall in the windmill's 200th year.

Joanna Spilman ran a gardening family workshop, planting seeds from Kew's Grow Wild project, organised by Lemnos and Crane. All planting in support of the library's planters and the greening of the Square

After a successful round of Happy Drums with eager visitors, Tony Bailey helps Dwaynemics get into their warm-up rhythm

... while others tried some Qi Gong with local tutor Neville Cotes

Decisions, decisions: hold or draw a dragon?
Port-a-Zoo and Learn to Draw with Pam Williams as happy neighbours to the delight of park's users

Music all around: In Windrush Square's sunshine with Joy of Sound or by the Library with Certitude Choir. An inclusive event!
